Enclosures:

No. 880 98/44-3 dated 19th May 1944.

Sir,

Madras Ministerial Service - Sri N.Amman - Head Clerk, Port Office, Mangalore - Retirement and re-employment - G.O.No.88. Finance, dated 4-6-43.

I have the honour to invite a reference to para 2 of the above G.O. and to state that Sri N. Amman, Head Clerk, Port Office, Mangalore, on Rs.70-100 per mensem, who attain the age of 55 years on 22-9-44 has been ordered to retire from service with effect from that date. In view of his long service and experience, his local knowledge and conditions of the Port of Mangalore and his great usefulness to the Port Officer-in-Charge of the Port, I propose to re-emp him on and from the aforesaid date, for the duration of the war, subject to the condition that his pay on re-employment plus pension does not exceed Rs.100/- per mensem, the pay that he will be drawing at the time of his retirement. With reference to the concluding portion of sub-para 2 of para 1 of G.O.No.Ms.5[illegible]7, Finance (Pension) dated 11-12-43, I request the sanction of Government thereto.

His pension would amount to about Rs.48-3-0 per mensem.

2. As there are no temporary or officiating vacancies in the grade of Rs.70-100, he will be continued in the substantive permanent vacancy caused by his retirement on 22-9-44 - vide Government Memo No.4128/44-3, Public (Services) dated 24-2-44.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

W. Balmforth

SUBJECT: FUNDAMENTAL RULES - Rule 56(a) - Retirement on attaining the age of years - Re-employment of superannuated Government servants during the - General policy laid down.

The Chief Engineer, Public Works Department (General) recently proposed that Rule 56(a) of the Fundamental Rules might be relaxed with a view to retaining ministerial servants in service beyond the age of superannuation, on the ground that offices and staff had expanded since the war and that the need for experienced and efficient clerical staff was very great. The Government considered that there was no need to alter the rule but that the rule should be applied more freely, that is, the standard of public grounds need not be so high as ordinarily and that everyone should be decided on its merits.

The Government have further examined the question whether in such cases the officer should be granted an extension of service or whether he should be retired from the date of superannuation and re-employed forthwith. They have decided that, as a general rule, the officer should be retired on the date of superannuation and then re-employed unless there are special reasons for granting an extension of such of service. These orders will hold good for the [illegible]
